

Regional ALCM Conference in Kansas City

July 28 - 30

Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral in Kansas City, MO, will host the Region 3 conference for the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, July 28-30, 2014. Under the theme Setting the Table Well: Feeding Hungry Worshipers in a Fast Food Culture, the menu includes spiritual renewal, visual art, poetry, psalms, and plenty of inspiration for worship and music ministry.

Presenters include Rev. Peter W. Marty (keynote); John Ferguson, Melody Steed, and Chris Nelson (organ); Mark Lucas (choral); Steve Hess, Chuck Hoffman, and Peg Carlson-Hoffman (visual art); Chris Hillila Lewis, Carolyn Wilson, and Linda Martin (multigenerational engagement in worship).

During the conference, attendees will participate in the creation of a prayer canvas and will have the opportunity to view two full-size volumes of The Saint John's Bible (see www.saintjohnsbible.org).

Even if you can't join us for the entire conference, mark your calendars for Tuesday evening's Hymn Festival led by Peter Marty and Chris Nelson. Beginning at 7:30 p.m. on July 29, this event is free of charge and open to the public. It will be followed by a reception.

More information, including a registration form, may be found at <http://www.alcm.org/about/regions/region-3/>. You may also contact Lara West with questions at lalarwest@gmail.com or 913-367-6486.

Pipedreams Scholarship Winners

Diana Lee Lucker, Pipedreams Scholarship Committee

Two talented young musicians were gifted Pipedreams Scholarships this spring.

Morgan Windsperger, age 18, from Montrose, MN, has been a piano student of Jennifer Wohlgemuth for 16 years! She plans to study Liturgical Music and Music Education at the College of St. Benedict. Morgan will begin her studies with Kim Kasling this summer.

Bryn McKeown, 15 years old, from Seaforth, MN, is already an accomplished organist. She has studied piano for nine years and organ for five years with Helen Wambeke of Marshall, MN. Her future goals are to be a church organist and to teach organ and piano.

The committee was impressed with the musicianship of these two young women. It is inspiring to know that the organ music goes on. My thanks to Mary Newton who, on short notice, was one of the adjudicators in place of Steve Gentile, who was unable to be with us.

Dean's Column

Laura Edman

Dear Colleagues,
It has been an honor to serve as Dean of TCAGO for the last two years.

The Executive Board and various committees are inspiring in their creativity and ability to get things done. We reached out to suburban areas for concerts and organ crawls – Shepherd of the Valley in Apple Valley, St. Philip the Deacon in Plymouth, five churches in Stillwater, and Zion Lutheran in Anoka. We held Summer Get-Togethers in four locations – First Presbyterian in Stillwater, St. Barnabas Lutheran in Plymouth, Christ the King Lutheran in Bloomington and St. Philips Lutheran in Coon Rapids.

We improved communications by updating our website with online membership capabilities, registration for events, resources and access to the online directory. We updated e-blasts with a modern template. We're on Facebook – follow us at Twin Cities chapter AGO. We've appointed a Communications Coordinator to help us improve our social media presence.

Cathedral Organ Recital to be rescheduled

Lawrence Lawyer

The recital by Sean Vogt at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, originally on the calendar for June 26, will be rescheduled, with a date to be announced.

Summer Organ Series at Wayzata Community Church

Diana Lee Lucker

Once again this summer Wayzata Community Church will host a Summer Organ Recital Series. The half-hour recitals are at 12:15 on Wednesdays beginning with June 18 and ending on July 30. These talented organists will showcase the 71-rank tracker instrument built by Charles Hendrickson.

You are invited to attend the reception following each recital where you can meet and greet the performers. Iced tea and coffee with delicious cookies will be waiting for you.

We have a new contemporary logo for publicity and correspondence. Our publicity has been enhanced by the excellent work of the Publicity Committee and its design team. Our hospitality is unbeatable as was shown at the gala reception at the May Members' Concert.

There are many people that do great and small things to keep TCAGO on track. I'd like to thank the Executive Board, committee chairpersons and their committees for the meetings and management of wonderful program offerings to educate and sustain TCAGO members.

May we continue to reach out and collaborate in our roles as church musicians, performers, teachers, pipe organ builders and tuners, choral directors, students, audience members, and organ aficionados.

Don't forget to renew your membership, ask your friends if they have renewed and invite someone new to join TCAGO. You won't want to miss next fall's opening event on Sunday, September 21 at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in St. Paul. James Bobb will work with St. Olaf's Cantorei Choir and lead an Evening/Vespers service. Mark your calendars now, and we'll see you in September.

MPR

Minnesota Public Radio encourages you to enter your classical music performance events in the MPR online calendar.

This information will reach a different audience than the online TCAGO or Pipedreams calendars. It's free, and it's another way to let people know about your classical music concerts.

By all means, continue to send information directly to Michael Barone too.

Regional broadcasts of Pipedreams are supported, in part, with a grant from the members and friends of the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.
